The Seasons of Advent & Christmas

SERVANTS of CHRIST ANGLICAN CHURCH

Church Calendar

ADVENT CHRISTMAS EPIPHANY LENT EASTER PENTECOST ORDINARY TIME Advent is the beginning of the Church year. We wait with anticipation for Jesus' birth while we also contemplate how we should live while we wait for Him to come again.

Christmastide is 12 days of feasting in honor of the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. During the season we marvel at the salvation that has come into the world, the promise of Jesus' reign, and the joy we have as adopted sons and daughters of God.

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may In Advent we light candles, observe a time of silent prayer, and sing O Come, O Come Emmanuel as a reminder that "the light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it" (John 1:5). Advent & Christmas remind us that Jesus is the light of the world and the Word of God.

The cross, a symbol of Christ in our worship, leads us to the altar, reminding us that our way to God is through Jesus.

With these words we affirm to one another and God why we've come together to worship.

A "collect" collects our prayers together in unity. This prayer acknowledges our need for help to worship God with all our heart, soul, and mind.

perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Summary of the Law

Remembering the focus of our faith—to love God and others gives us opportunity to reflect on what is most important.

As we reflect, we recognize and state our need for mercy because we routinely fail to love God and our neighbors.

Children are an important part of our church and worship. Jesus said, "Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God" (Mark 10:14). We bring the children forward so that they can know that God invites them to come and know Him.

A "collect" collects our prayers together in unity. This prayer changes each week and focuses our prayers for the week ahead. Celebrant

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says:

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets. Matthew 22:37-40

The Bible is one coherent story so we read from different parts, desiring to hear God speak to us through His Word.

We sing a chorus before and after the Gospel reading as we prepare our hearts for the sermon. This is a sufficient statement of the Christian faith – what all Christians everywhere have always believed to be true. The term "Nicene" refers to its origins at the Council of Nicaea (a gathering of the whole Church) in 325 A.D. We say this each week as a reminder of what is most important to believe and what unites us as Christians.

The Confession

Deacon

Silence.

All

Please remain kneeling as you are able.

Now that we are reminded of what is broken and painful in this life, we confess our sin (our rebellion against God), because it is the underlying cause of all that pains this world.

Having confessed our sin and our need for a Savior, the priest reminds us of God's incredible mercy and forgiveness, pronouncing God's absolution (forgiveness) of our sins.

Having received God's forgiveness, we express that we have been reconciled to God and one another by sharing the peace we now have through Jesus. We do this before the offering because Jesus says, "First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift" (Matthew 5:24).

| nain kneeling as you are able. |
| Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God. |
| Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, |
| by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. |
| We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. |
| We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. |
| For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, |
| have mercy on us and forgive us; |
| that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, |
| to the glory of your Name. Amen. |

The Absolution

Celebrant Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with your spirit.

The Ministers and People greet one another in the Name of the Lord. Parents may now pick up their children ages 4 and under from the nursery if they desire. Nursery is available through the end of the service. Children in Kindergarten through 3rd grades will return from Children's Church at this time.

The Offering and Doxology

During the Offertory hymns or songs may be sung. The Deacon or Priest prepares the Holy Table for the celebration.

Please be seated for the offertory hymn.

Please stand for the Doxology and while the offerings are presented at the altar.

| Celebrant | It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, | |
| Advent | because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death, and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great glory to judge the world, we may without shame or fear rejoice to behold his appearing. | |
| Christmastide | because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son to be born for us; who, by the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary his mother, was made truly man, yet without the stain of sin, that we might be cleansed from sin and given the right to become your children. | |
| | Therefore we praise you, joining with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name: | |

In response to all that God has done for us, we worship God by giving of our finances and raising our voices together in song.

Literally meaning "Lift up your hearts" the Sursum Corda begins a prayer of great thanksgiving to God for the redemption of the world through Jesus Christ. Latin for "holy," this ancient hymn weaves together Scripture which describes the worship happening on heaven and earth (Isaiah 6:3, Psalm 118:26, Matthew 21:9, Revelation 4:8). We join with all the saints in heaven on earth in worshiping God.

This prayer retells the story of redemption, recalling the wonderful mystery of God becoming human in the person of Jesus Christ to give His life for us and renew all things.

The Sanctus

Celebrant

All

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Prayer of Consecration

Please remain standing or kneel as you are able.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son Jesus Christ into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Celebrant Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

> All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Please remain standing or kneeling as you are able.

Celebrant And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray: All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done. on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Jesus taught his disciples this prayer as a model for how to pray (Luke 11:1–4). The Lord's Prayer roughly breaks down into three types of prayers: Praise (Thank you), Petition (Please), and Penitence (Sorry). We pray this each week to remind us how Jesus taught us to pray.

As we hear the sound of the bread being broken, we remember the cost of Christ's sacrifice for us.

In the Sacrament we partake of God's past, present, and future grace. The physical bread and wine nourish us with the spiritual presence of Jesus.

In response to all we have heard, learned, and experienced during the service, we turn our hearts to sing praises to our God.

We give thanks for the feast we have partaken in and prepare to go back into the world to labor for his kingdom.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Ministration of Communion

The gifts of God for the people of God. Take them Celebrant in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

You may be seated.

All

The Ministers receive the Sacrament and then give it to the People.

During Communion, songs or hymns may be sung.

All baptized and believing Christians are invited to participate in communion. If you would like to drink from the chalice for communion, please consume the bread when it is given to you. If you would prefer to dip your bread in the wine, please hold onto the bread and dip it in the chalice. Gluten-free bread is available. Simply cross your hands palm-down as a sign to the priest and it will be brought to you. If for any reason, you do not wish to receive communion, we invite you to come forward and cross your arms over your chest to receive a blessing from a priest. Trained members of the prayer team are available during communion in the alcoves under the exit signs for any prayer needs that you may have.

The Post Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able. Celebrant Let us pray. Heavenly Father, We thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal Kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, gives this or an alternate blessing.

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.
